Beautiful Photographs.

Norman, the photographer, has just placed a new photograph cabinet at the Main street entrance of the Agricultural bank which contains a rich display of the art of photography. The work of Mr. Norman is attracting wide attention and the display is only a fair sample of the work he is capable of executing. Special attention is given to inquiries.

Fine Display of Implements.

The enterprising firm of Yrekes & Kenney have this year at the Bourbon Fair one of the most complete displays of farm implements ever exhibited. The display, which is the largest seen on the grounds of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society consists of gasoline engines, corn huskers, sulky plows, tongueless, single and double disc harrows, drills, wagons, etc.

The display is attractively arranged and thorough demonstration of the implements can be made to the farmers, or prospective buyers.

Messrs. Yrekes & Kenney have the agency for the best farming implements manufactured in this country and the practical display they now have at the fair grounds should be seen by every farmer who visits the fair.

The Bourbon Fair.

Under the most favorable auspices the sixty-fourth annual exhibit of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society opened Tuesday. The crowd on the opening day, which was designated as children's and pony day, was the largest in the history of the society for the first day.

The day being set aside principally for the exhibition of ponies, no less than one thousand children were present to the exhibit. The display of horses, colts, cattle and sheep was pronounced by competent judges to be the best ever seen on the grounds.

The Midway, which comprises several first-class shows, is running at full blast. Weber's band which is giving daily concerts together with the flying Moores a free aerial attraction are proving great drawing cards.

In a mammoth tent is the poultry display, said by competent judges to be the biggest exhibit ever seen on the grounds.

Honors were about equally divided between the show herds of Elemendorf and Abram Renick of Clark, for the best bred of Shorthorn cattle, while some of the premiums for cattle scheduled for second day, were exhibited during the afternoon hours, owing to the fact that the judge of the rings, Mr. William Rogers, of Horace, Ind., could not be present Wednesday.

Wednesday, the second day of the fair brought out a crowd of about three thousand people.

The surprise of the day came when the undefeated Edna Mae, driven to harness by Mr. Matt Cohen of Lexington, went down in defeat before the great harness mare, Kate Hamilton, owned and driven by Mr. J. R. Fagan of Brooksville. The contest was a spirited one and both entries never showed up better. Mr. S. C. Carpenter of Millersburg was the judge.

The contest for the handsomest boy baby under eighteen months of age attracted much interest and had four entries, Master Ben Woodford Wornall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wornall, Master Ferguson Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor, Master Frank Gravitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gravitt, and Master Edward Mansfield Templin son of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Templin. First premium was awarded to Master Ferguson Taylor and second premium to Master Frank Gravitt. The judges were Mrs. Rudolph Davis, Mrs. Clall Turney and Mrs. Mary Ireland Davis.

For the handsomest decorated automobile there were three entries. Brigadier General L. Musson, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Faries, Mr. Brent Arnold of Covington, accompanied by Miss Bright Kelly of the same city and Misses Rachel Wiins Fannie Johnson and Ollie Butler and, Mr. J. S. Douglass accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret Douglass, and Miss Franklin Hopkins. First prize went to General Musson, imitation pink chrysanthemums, pink silk ribbons and bouquets of pink and whose touring car was attractive in white carnations. Second Mr. J. S. Douglass and third to Mr. Brent Arnold.

The heavy rain which fell during the early morning hours yesterday had but little effect upon the attendance and a crowd variously estimated at from 7,000 to 10,000 people thronged the grounds.

The feature event of the day was the sweepstakes for harness horses and the Directors' Premium for the best stallion, mare or gelding brought out seven entries. The blue tie was carried away by the famous show mare, Edna Mae, by Rex Peavine and the property of Matt Cohen of Lexington; Jackstraw, by Rex Peavine, owned by Matlack & Shropshire, and driven by Wm. Shropshire, was the second choice and Brooklyn Chief, by Bracken Chief, owned by J. F. Fagan, was third. The other entries were Col. Young, Collins & Redmon; Kate Hamilton, J. R. Fagan; Blue Boy, Caywood and Hamilton; Sir James, Matlack & Shropshire.

The famous show mare, Golden Butterfly, owned by Matlack & Shropshire, has been ill since the opening day of the fair, and has not appeared in any of the rings. Her owners, however, believe she will be in condition to enter the sweepstakes event today for saddle stallion, mare or gelding. Yesterday's awards are as follows:

Facts About Mr. Roosevelt.

That Mr. Roosevelt is a very erratic person even his friends must admit; but there is one thing for which he is steadfast, and that is his great admiration for Roosevelt. He thinks that he is right all the time, and has stated that, like Caesar's wife, his actions are above suspicion whatever he does. But what are the facts? He has played fast and loose with factions of the Republican party. He has cheek by jowl with Cannon, Aldrich, Payne, Sherman and Dalzell when occasions suited him; he unqualifiedly praised Mark Hanna, Matt Quay and Henry Payne when they died; yet he and all men knew that they were unblushing political corruptionists; he invited Harriman to the White House and urged him to raise $260,000 for the National Republican committee in 1904 to debase the state of New York, which Harriman said turned 50,000 votes in New York City alone; two years later he violently assailed Harriman; he was scheming with "My dear Maria" to induce the Vatican to elect Archbishop Ireland a Cardinal as a reward for his fidelity to Roosevelt Republicanism, and later he went back on her by initiating her as a charter member of the Ananias Club. These are but a few of the many instances of the aleidoscopic changes of the Colonel, and there are many more that may be cited.

First Fun of the Campaign.

The voters of Maine will elect state officers and four Congressmen on September 12. The Democrats declare they have a fair chance of carrying the state and are quite confident of electing D. J. McGillucuddy their candidate for Congress in the second district and think that William M. Pennell will be successful in Portland district. The Democratic candidate for governor is Frederic W. Plaisted the present mayor of Augusta who is waging a vigorous campaign. The Maine woods are said to be full of insurgents who if they "come out" on election day will overturn the usual large Republican majority.

John Hay Hammond is feeling his oats, as the boy says, and believes that he is a statesman. He will get President Taft into more of a political mess than he now is, if he is allowed to run around the country defending the President's alliance with Cannon and Aldrich last year.

The Washington Star reports that the West Virginia Republicans are "a unit for protection". That may be true of the politicians, who are noted as being for "the old flag" and an appropriation but what of the voters.

With Teddy on the stump out West, the standpatters are not having so much rest as they counted on.

We expect to hear of more Republican candidates for Congress than Joe Sibley having heart disease by the time election day arrives, and many having heart aches after election. Turn the rascals down.

From what Mr. Roosevelt is saying, we would suggest to president Taft to keep his eye peeled or some of the delegates to the Republican National Convention may get away from him.

Postmasters to Meet this Month.

It has been decided by the Postmasters' Association, which includes Presidential officers, at the State League of Postmasters of third and fourth class offices, to hold a joint meeting this year in Louisville, Sept. 14th and 15th. The League will meet at 2 o'clock p. m. on the 13th, for the purpose of transacting such business as pertains to League affairs only.

On the 14th and 15th the Association and League will hold a joint meeting for the purpose of discussing postal affairs.

There will be several representatives of the Post-office Department present to give instructions. The new Money Order and Registry System will be fully explained. Every Postmaster should attend as they will learn more than they would in a year at home and many things they never would learn otherwise.

A Valuable Hen.

The Cynthiana Democrat says: Col. Bob Henry has a Plymouth Rock that lays chocolate colored eggs. Mr. Henry brought one of the latest output to the Democrat office, Tuesday, and his claims are verified in every detail. He declares the hen is normal, conscientious fowl who goes about her every day duties with a patience and faithfulness worthy of emulation and there is no apparent reason why her eggs should be different from the eggs of her sisters and cousins and aunts. The only eccentricity is her persistence in depositing the dainty chocolate drops among the tomato vines in the garden, rather than in the regulation nest. The chocolate covering is quite thin and can be peeled leaving the shell perfectly white. Mr. Henry says his wife believes the inside of the shell is filled with ice cream, but, remembering the inability of all King's horses and all King's men to put Humpty Dumpty together again we are not going to break the specimen left at this office."

Stubborn as Mules

are liver and bowels sometimes; seem to balk without cause. Then there's trouble—loss of appetite—indigestion, nervousness, despondency, headache. But such troubles flies before Dr. King's New Life Pills, the world's best stomach and liver remedy. So easy. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

No Warning to Banks.

J. A. Fraser and Lon Rogers, State Bank Examiners, Monday started to work inspecting the banks of the State. The banks they will examine are known only to examiners and Dr. Bruner, Secretary of State, as it is desired to reach the banks without any notice of their coming.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Texas, than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 13 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough and lung trouble its supreme, 50c $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

"A Million for Tuberculosis."

Arrangements for the sale of the Cross Christmas Seals for 1910 have been announced in a bulletin issued by the National Association for the study of Prevention of Tuberculosis and the American Red Cross. "A Million for Tuberculosis" will be the slogan of the 1910 campaign.

Two features of the sale this year are unique and will bring considerable capital to the tuberculosis fighters.

The American National Red Cross is to issue the stamps as in former years, but this organization will work in close co-operation with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which body will share in the proceeds of the sales. The charge to local associations for the use of the national stamps have been reduced also from 20 per cent to 12 per cent, which will mean at least $50,000 more for tuberculosis work in all parts of the United States.

The stamps are to be designated as "Red Cross Seals" this year and are to be placed on the back of letters instead of on the front.

The National Conference of Tuberculosis Secretaries through its President, Mr. John Kingsbury, of New York, has issued a letter calling upon all State and local anti-tuberculosis associations to unite with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis and the Red Cross Society in the sale of Christmas seals and the determination of tuberculosis. Every effort will be made to discourage the use of local stamps and to encourage the distribution of the national stickers.

After much meditation and experience, I have divined that it takes as much sense and refinement and talent to cook a dinner, wash and wipe a dish, make a bed and dust a room as goes to the writing of a novel or shining in high society.—Rose Terry Cooke.

CLINTONVILLE ITEMS.

—Miss Maddox of Eminence, Ky., is visiting Mrs. Lee Stevenson and other friends in this section.

—School begins next Monday, September 12, with Miss Gorham, the former teacher again presiding.

—Fine rains insure a good corn crop in this neighborhood. Tobacco looks well and with continued warm weather the later settings may make a medium yield.

—The birthday dinner given our pastor by that "prince of good fellows," Mr. W. C. Stipp, at his home, and with some of his children and grand children, was highly appreciated by the Elder and his wife.

—Services at the Clintonville Christian church next Lord's Day, September 11, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning theme, "The Wedding Garment;" evening theme, "Mixed crops." Bible school 10 a. m. sharp. Song service 7 p. m. Home to sing, to enjoy and to worship in song. Preaching 7:30 to 8.

—Last Lord's Day was our pastor's birthday. He did not tell how old he was, but he did request of each member to bring him a present of a bright, happy smile, a kind word and a warm welcome to each other, and a sweet, loving fellowship in song to Him whose weekly birthday we celebrate, as we gather round the table spread with His own precious body and His blood. The flowers brought by half a score of Mesdames and maidens that decorated the organ, the pulpit and the communion table, not only beautified and enhanced the room, already filled with many of the elite wearing beautiful hats tastily and uniquely trimmed bonnets, while these early fall flowers filled the auditorium with their sweet perfumes and delightful odors. The preparatory roll-call of the members revealed the registration of the congregation to be one hundred and twenty-five. This being the day of worship given to the laboring class, the first Sunday in September, Labor Sunday, is an unanswerable sign that the churches recognized the millions who toil with their hands, and are not indifferent to their welfare. The subject was "Labor is a Blessing, and Worth a Secret of Joy."

Fought for Their Home.

Two martin houses in Waynesboro, Pa., were taken possession of by a colony of English sparrows in the fall, when the martins vacated them for their winter sojourn in the sunny south. The martins returned and engaged in a pitched battle for possession of their former nesting place. The martins won out in the contention and regained possession of their homes.

Why Named.

The old-fashioned name of bridegroom was formerly given to the newly married man because it was customary for him to wait at table on his bride and friends on his wedding day.

Fall Opening

We announce with pleasure the readiness of our Fall Stock of Clothing, Hats, Manhattan Shirts, Hosiery, and Custom Tailoring. Never before have we shown such a complete and varied line as we do this fall in all departments. We ask you to call and inspect them, look around and see for yourself what a complete line and what values we give you in every department. We invite visitors to the fair to make this store their headquarters—check their baggage here, have their mail addressed here, and in every way to make this their home.

CLOTHING—Fashionable Fall Clothes For Men Are Here.

There are several kinds of ready-to-wear clothes. Some are made in vast quantities to meet low price demand. These are the commercial kind. Others, even first grade clothes, which mean but slightly greater outlay, are made for the man who's easily pleased. In these little attention is paid to fit and finish, style is a neglected quantity. That's why it pays to get the best kind, the finest of first-grade clothes, the kind we sell.

In our Clothes you are assured of the very best in Style, Fit and Finish.

In our line of Clothing we show the best selected patterns, the best fitting, the most stylish models and at prices that are right. We are showing this season all the new models in browns, mottled greys, blues, in fact everything that is new, and the patterns of most of which are controlled exclusively by us.

A life-long saving and a better wardrobe will be the result of your critical inspection of our fall stock.

SUITS, $12.50, $15, $17.50, $20, $22.50, $25, $27.50, $30, $35.

OVERCOATS, $12.50 to $40.

We sell clothing that must make good under any test and the supreme test is "your money back if you want it."

BASE BALL.

TUESDAY.

In a pretty contest in the Clarke county capital Tuesday afternoon the Bourbonites were defeated by the Winchester Club by a score of 2 to 0.

Both clubs were on their mettle and an errorless game was played. Burden was in the box for the Bourbonites. The former had a shade the best of the argument although he was pounded for eight safeties, while the victorious club touched Poole for nine.

The locals were unable to bunch hits off of Burden and a number of chances to score resulted in the side being retired without a run. Score:

Winchester 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 x-2

Sun Bros.' Circus at Lexington.

Whoop La! The merry circus is coming and memories of childhood days will again be revived when the great society circus to be given by the Lexington Elks takes place on Tuesday afternoon and night, September 20, on the show grounds in Lexington.

It is estimated to make of this event one of the greatest entertainments projected in a long time. It will be an elaborate affair throughout. The famous Sun Brothers' Circus has been engaged to furnish the main attractions, and which will be augmented with many local performers. The Elks take part in the big circus program, and they are arranging many original stunts and burlesque pieces.

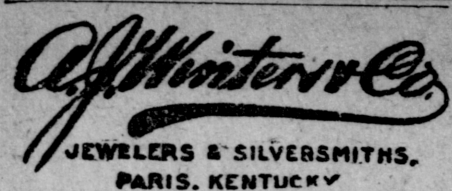

The Elks' parade, in which Paris Elks are expected to participate, will be one of the most amusing features of the big event. You've got to see it to appreciate it.

Attention Fair Visitors.

While in town attending the fair don't fail to stop in and inspect our fall stock of carpets, rugs and wall paper. It is one of the sights of fair week.

JUDGMENT:

This cause having been heretofore called for trial and the parties having appeared in person and by attorney, and the court having heard the evidence and the arguments of Counsel, and being sufficiently advised, renders the following judgment:

The defendants, James H. Hopkins, Everett Hopkins and Joseph S. Hopkins, having produced the written consent, now filed herein, of Willis Ham, trustee of Letton District to permit said Hopkins to be included in the proposed graded common school district, the lines of which as heretofore drawn, includes a portion of said James H. Hopkins' farm, but not the portion upon which James H. Hopkins, Everett Hopkins and Joseph S. Hopkins reside, and the petitioners having produced the written consent of R. H. Burris and Edwin Thomason trustees, now filed herein, for F. M. Gillispie and Jesse N. Fishback to be included in the said proposed graded common school district, the said written consent with reference to said Hopkins and the said Gillispie and the said Fishback being ordered to be made a part of the record herein, and it appearing from the statement of James H. Hopkins, in open court, that he prefers to have his entire farm in this proposed graded common school district, and it appearing from the statement of Jesse N. Fishback, in open Court, that he prefers his entire farm in Bourbon county to be in this proposed graded common school district, but it appearing from the statement of F. M. Gillispie, in open Court, that he prefers that no part of his home place be taken in this said proposed graded common school district, the Court is of the opinion that in fixing the boundary of the proposed graded common school district, the farm of the said James H. Hopkins should be included, and that the farm of Jesse N. Fishback, in Bourbon county, should be included, and that the home place of F. M. Gillispie should be excluded, and it appearing to the court that the petition herein has been signed by more than ten legal voters who are tax payers in the Justices' District of Bourbon county embraced in the boundary herein set-out, and all other things appearing from the evidence herein necessary to entitle the petitioners to the relief asked, and the County Judge and the petitioners having agreed upon the particular boundary herein set-out, to-wit:

Beginning in the middle of Hinkston under the iron bridge, known as the fishback bridge, and thence down the middle of Hinkston as it meanders to a point on Hinkston where Chas. Squires & Brother and John F. Young corner, thence along the line between the tract of land formerly owned by E. B. Soper and now owned by Squire Bros., and the adjoining land owned by Squire Bros., and which was owned by them prior to the purchase by them of the E. B. Soper land, to the point where the lands of Squire Bros., formerly owned by E. B. Soper, and the adjoining tract owned by Squire Bros., and the lands of James H. Hopkins corner, thence along the line between James H. Hopkins and the land of Squire Bros. (to-wit the tract of land owned by Squire Bros., prior to the purchase by them of the E. B. Soper tract of land) to a point in the center of the Little Rock and Jacktown turnpike where the lands of James H. Hopkins and Squire Bros. corner, continuing in a straight line thence between the lands of James H. Hopkins and Miss Maude Bramblette to the point where Thomas Sledd, James H. Hopkins and Miss Maude Bramblette corner, thence along the line between said Hopkins and Sledd to that gate in their line fence through which the said Sledd passes to and from the Little Rock and Jacktown turnpike, thence in a straight line to and including the residence of Jesse Smith, now occupied by Thomas Wasson and Bascomb Bonta, thence in a straight line to the residence of John W. Skillman, occupied by Lee Gravens and owned by Mrs. Brice Steel and formerly the residence of the late Thomas Woodford, thence to a stone now set in the South margin of the Paris and Little Rock turnpike about seventy-five feet from a point on said pike where Roseberry and Cain corner on said pike, thence in a straight line to a point on the John Skillman Sr.'s pike on top of hill south-west of Skillman's residence where Will Young and the lands of the estate of John W. Skillman, Sr., corner on said pike, thence in a straight line to the main house, including it, on the farm lately sold by W. C. Wilkerson to Young Bros., thence in a straight line to a point in John Collier's line where Harry Caywood and Mrs. Johnson corner, thence in a straight line to and including the residence of Miss Belle Horton, thence in a straight line to the junction of the Rock Bridge pike with the North Middleton and Levy pike, thence with the middle thereof with the meandering of the said Rock Bridge pike to a point on said pike where James Clarke and Ben Dailzell corner, thence in a straight line to I. S. Crouch's home place, now occupied and owned by Chas. Frazier, including said residence, thence in a straight line to a stone now set on Levy & Judy pike near John McDaniels' residence and two and one-half miles by a straight line from the location of the center of the graded school site at Little Rock, thence in a straight line to Ned Gillispie's new gate on Payton Lick pike (to-wit; his gate on Payton Lick pike nearest the terminus on said pike of the dirt road leading to the Burris school house, being about fifty or one hundred yards, more or less, from the terminus of said dirt road on said pike) thence from said gate in a straight line to and including the residence owned by John Burris, and occupied by Chas. Hopkins, thence to the front gate of said residence on the Carlisle and Rogers Mill pike, thence to the middle of said pike, thence with the middle of said pike as it meanders to the fork of the Carlisle and Rogers Mill pike at the foot of Johnson's Hill, thence along the line between Ned Gillispie and Jonathan Burris to a point in Jonathan Burris' line where said Gillispie and Mrs. Kate Bryan corner, thence along the line between Mrs. Kate Bryan and the lands of Ned Gillispie to the line of Roger Burris thence along the line between Roger Burris and Ned Gillispie to the point where they corner with Roy Burris, near Boone creek bridge, thence with the line of Ned Gillispie and Roy Burris to the center of the Carlisle and Rogers Mill pike, thence along the middle of said pike to the point where Jesse N. Fishback and Anderson Bonta corner in said pike, thence leaving the pike so as to include in this graded common school district the land of Jesse N. Fishback lying on the South side of Hinkston in Bourbon county and running with his outer boundary from said pike to Hinkston, thence with the middle of Hinkston to the point of beginning, but all of the land now owned by F. M. Gillispie, (otherwise known and called Ned Gillispie), are excluded from this graded common school district, except, however, the farm of 129 acres and 3 rods conveyed by E. T. Talbee to F. M. Gillispie & Son by deed of record in the office of the Clerk of the Bourbon County Court in Deed Book 94, page 272, and said farm of 129 acres and 3 rods is included in said graded common school district.

It is ordered and entered upon the order book of this court that the boundary of the proposed graded common school district as agreed upon by the County Judge and the petitioners be fixed, and it is hereby fixed as above set out, and the sheriff of Bourbon county is directed to open a poll in said proposed graded common school district on the eighth day of October 1910, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal white voters in said proposed graded common school district upon the proposition whether or not they will vote an annual tax of 35 cents on each one hundred dollars of property assessed in said proposed graded common school district belonging to white voters or corporations, and a poll tax of $1.50 per capita on each white male inhabitant over twenty-one years of age residing in said proposed graded common school district, 25 cents of the 35 cents on each one hundred dollars of assessed property belonging to white voters or corporations to be used for the purpose of maintaining a graded common school in said proposed graded common school district, and the poll tax of $1.50 per capita on each white male inhabitant over twenty-one years of age residing in said proposed graded common school district to be used for purchasing and erecting suitable buildings therefor. It shall be the duty of the County Clerk to give to said sheriff a certified copy of this order as it appears on the order book within ten days after said order is made. To the foregoing judgment the defendants, F. M. Gillispie, C. H. Frazier, James H. Hopkins, William Thomas, Clarence Rulis, John L. Soper, R. P. Hopkins, B. F. Hopkins and H. F. Hopkins, object and accept. A Copy Attest:

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1882 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine under-draft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood Mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are the easiest running, lightest draft, handiest to operate, least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

A REWARD

By AINSWORTH RHODES

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

It was at the height of the season at the seashore. Aunt Charlotte, my sister Ruth and I were enjoying the sea air, and I especially was enjoying the sea water. My aunt had charge of us girls and considered herself responsible for us. She used to sit on the beach watching us.

I was wading one day in water up to my waist. I wore a little gold cross about my neck and had lost it.
While looking for it—I could have seen it on the bottom—I went down into deep water.

I had been swimming a good deal and was tired. They say that swiming is the hardest exercise one can take. At any rate, in trying to swim back to shallow water I found that I didn't move at all. I got frightened, and this made matters worse. The tide was settling down to the south and was moving me with it—not far,
but proximity makes little difference when one is powerless. I called to my aunt, but she did not hear me or was not aware of my condition, for she made no move to help or call on any one to help me.

What an awful thing it is to be in danger of drowning and see some one looking at you, thinking that you are enjoying yourself!

But there was one of more experience in such matters who did see me. Near by was a pier extending out into the ocean, and on that pier was a man. He was standing over deep water some twenty feet above the surface. He was in shirt waist costume. I saw him jump feet foremost and swim for me. I went down before he reached me, but only for a moment. I felt his hand under my arm. We rose to the surface, and a few strokes carried us to shallow water.

One would suppose that my first feelings would be gratitude to the man who had helped me. Singularly enough, what I thought about was my lost
cross, a little gold trinket not worth $5. As soon as I got my breath I said:
"Oh, my cross! I fear I shall never see it again."

"Your cross?"
"Yes. I dropped it near here. I was looking for it when I stepped beyond my depth."

He cast his eye about him and, suddenly thrusting his hand down for an object glistening in the sunlight, picked up my cross and handed it to me.

It was impossible for me, dressed as the man was, to tell to what class he belonged. He might be a boatman or a fisherman or follow any calling pertaining to the water. He certainly swam like a duck. I hesitated a moment about offering him money for having helped me out of deep water, but finally as we walked up on to the beach I said, "If you will call at the Arlington hotel I shall have something for you."

"At what hour?" he asked.
"Well, say directly after luncheon."

He took off his hat to me and walked away, doubtless to get on dry clothes.
After luncheon I went to my room for a rest, which I greatly needed. I was falling into a doze when a waiter rapped at the door and said that a man was below who said I had asked him to call. I went to my trunk, where I kept my money, took out a ten dollar bill and told the waiter to give it to the man below. The waiter went downstairs, but soon returned with the bill.

"He says it isn't enough, miss."
I was rather taken aback; but, going again to my trunk, I got out another ten dollar bill and sent it with the first. But the waiter came back, as before, with the message, "Not enough."
I kept sending additional bills until I had sent $50, but they all came back with the same message. At last I told the waiter to ask the man what would satisfy him. The reply came back:
"The little gold cross."

My surprise at this was greater than before. The man had declined $50 and asked for a gold cross which, as I have said, was not worth $5. I had no especial attachment to the trinket,
so I handed it to the waiter and told him to give it to the man below.

I may have been stupid about it, but I couldn't understand the matter at all. Why a man who would take a reward for saving a life should decline
a substantial one for a girl's ornament I couldn't imagine. But I was very tired and went to sleep thinking about it.

Well, I didn't see the man any more on the beach, nor anywhere else for that matter. One evening we went over to the Bellevue for the dance there. One of the girls said that a yachting party of young men were to be there, and we all got our prettiest costumes. When we reached the Bellevue the hop was in full swing, but the yachtsmen had not appeared.
Presently they came in.

"Well, I declare," I exclaimed, turning red as a beet on seeing one of them there, "if that isn't the man who took my cross as a reward for saving me."

"That," said a lady standing near,
"is the yacht's owner; he's a triple millionaire."

"He saw me and came right up to me. I tried to slip away, for my cheeks were flaming, but he was too spry for me. Holding out my cross,
he said:

"I won't keep it any longer as a reward, but I would be glad to have it for a token of our first meeting."

Constipation Cure Free

With the first signs of constipation you resort to the home methods of relief, such as hot or cold water on arising, lots of stewed fruit with your breakfast, etc., but what do you do when these fail?

The majority then start on salts and purgative waters, then change to cathartic pills, etc. If you have gone through these various stages you know they were all useless, so far as permanent results
go. Now you should try just once again,
but try something practical and sensible,
a remedy made and intended for the purpose you are trying to accomplish. Such a remedy, as thousands can testify, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to be permanent in its results. Its ingredients are such that by a brief use of it the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to again do their work normally, so that in the end you can do away with medicines of all kinds.
That it will do this Mr. G. Y. Dodson of Sanville, Va., will gladly attest, and so will Mrs. S. A. Hampton of Portage, O.
To those who are still skeptical there is a way to prove these assertions without a penny of expense: Simply send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and obtain a free sample bottle. After using it, if you are then convinced it is the remedy you need, buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of your druggist and continue to use it for a brief time until cured. The directions are simple and the dose is small. It is pleasant to the taste, does not gripe and is promptly effective,
and these statements are guaranteed or money will be refunded.

This remedy is over a quarter of a century old and is personally taken by more druggists than any other similar remedy on the American market. Because of its effectiveness, purity and pleasant taste it is the ideal laxative remedy for children, women and old folks generally.
Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail.
For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Synonymous with Good Breeding.

A woman of good breeding never neglects her hands. If she is wise she will make frequent visits to some competent manicurist. The hands, the finger nails speak eloquently for or against one's character. Well cared for, properly manicured fingernails make you immune from criticism. Do not risk going into a drawing room, theatre, hotel, or any public place without having your nails manicured. This branch of our business receives special attention. We know the art of manicuring to a "T."

The Buick.

Yerkes & Kenney are agents for the Buick automobile, one of the best machines on the market.

Early in the career of automobile building the Buick took its place with the American public as a standard of excellence and exemplification of advanced science in automobile construction.

No greater reward can be had than that of having won the confidence and approval of the American public. This can only be gained by strict adherence to the policy of a square deal to everyone. The question as to whether the Buick has succeeded in gaining this great reward, can best be answered by the following facts:

In 1904, the output was only 37 cars; in 1905 it had grown to 750; in 1906 the total reached 4,592; in 1908 he saw the previous year's output practically doubled, or in other words, 8,820 cars manufactured and sold; while in 1909 the production was 14,002. Great as has been the business of the past year, some idea of the popularity of the Buick line may be gained when it is stated that for the season of 1910, the schedule of the Buick Motor Company calls for the manufacture of 40,100 cars, which output will not meet the demands of its many friends throughout the United States.

An inspection of the 1910 line shows little change in outlines, little change being necessary owing to the advanced ideas incorporated in our standard models. A close study of the mechanical features, however, will show a perfection of equipment and construction which enables the Buick at this time to give its thousands of patrons and friends a car still at the head of a long line of automobiles manufactured to-day—in fact a model car.

The name Buick shall ever be a synonym with high standard in construction, and perfection in beauty of outline. Every endeavor shall be concentrated toward the continuance and intensifying of its motto—"Buick Consumers are Our Best Salesmen."

"The following letter will be of interest:

The Leyman-Buick Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Gentlemen:—Replying to your letter of Aug. 19th, regarding the rumor of the Buick Motor Company having sold cars to the Sears, Roebuck Company, wish to advise, that the Buick Motor Company have not sold any cars to the Sears Roebuck Company, or to any other jobbing house in the past, nor do they contemplate any such move in the future.

The Buick Motor Company realize that they have a good many reliable distributors and dealers, upon whom they would work a great injustice by selling cars to any jobber.

Furthermore, the Buick Motor Company to-day has the largest and strongest automobile sales in the world, and they are entirely capable of taking care of all the cars we can make.

You may rest assured that when the Buick Motor Company has any "plums" to give out, their first thought will be of their Branches, Distributors and Dealers.

Very truly yours,
BUICK MOTOR COMPANY,
W. J. Haughey,
Sales Department.

D. A. R. Fall Convention.

The Kentucky D. A. R. will hold a Fall Conference in Frankfort in October which will be largely attended, about two hundred delegates from all parts of the State being expected.

The Susanna Hart Shelby Chapter, D. A. R. which was organized as a result of the meeting last year will have a meeting the first of October, says the Kentucky State Journal, to make arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors, who number some of the most distinguished women in the State, and they also hope that many of the national officers will be present.

The social features of this convention will form a large part of the meeting, as the organization is more of a social order and its members are composed of women prominent in the social life of the State.

Mrs. Ben Johnson of Bardtown, is the new regent who will preside at the meeting, having been elected last year, and she assumes control this year.

Injured in Auto Smash.

Mr. A. F. Wheeler of Lexington, his wife, daughter and chauffeur, Reitsel Woods, formerly of Paris, were all more or less painfully hurt in an automobile accident Sunday afternoon about two miles North of Paris on the Cynthiana pike.

The party in Mr. Wheeler's automobile, were enroute from Lexington to Cynthiana. When two miles North of Paris and while trying to pass a buggy in the road, the machine skidded in the mud and struck a high culvert wall at the roadside, partly wrecking the automobile and throwing the occupants out.

Mrs. Wheeler was the only one of the party severely hurt. She sustained painful bruises.

It was at first thought that Chauffeur Woods had two ribs broken, but it was found that he and Mr. Wheeler were only bugged and shaken up.

The impact shattered one wheel of the machine and battered the wall down.

Samuel Clay of Paris, came along with his machine and took the injured members of the party to Paris for medical treatment.

A message was sent to Paris for a new wheel and the automobile was later put in running order.

Fortunately the car was going at a moderate speed, or the result would have been far more serious.
